

Many Close Homes Here for Summer. Some Going Abroad

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Goff to Leave Today for Oster- ville, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Goff will close their home today and go to Osterville, Mass., where they will open their summer home for the season.

Mrs. Henry M. Hoyt and Miss Nancy Hoyt will close their home here June 13 and go to Bar Harbor, where they will occupy their cottage for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Glover, Jr., sailed yesterday from New York aboard the Olympic for England, where they have taken a house for the summer. Mr. Glover will probably return to Washington the middle of August and Mrs. Glover will remain abroad until the middle of September.

Miss Eleanor Williams of New York is visiting Miss Lindsay Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waddy B. Wood, and will remain over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. Pomeroy of 1256 New Hampshire avenue will leave Washington later in June preparatory to sailing from San Francisco about June 27 for the Orient, where they will pass some time. They will be accompanied by their family and will stop at the Philippine Islands and other points before going to Shanghai.

Miss Josephine Pomeroy, their school girl daughter, will go to New York to visit a school friend and together they will attend the commencement exercises at West Point.

Mr. and Mrs. William Eric Fowler have arrived in Los Angeles, Calif., and are planning to spend the summer in southern California, returning to their home here in the autumn. Mrs. Fowler's young daughter, Emily Earl, has gone abroad with relatives to devote several months to a practical study of French, while her young sons, Edwin, Jarvis and Charles, will be in Los Angeles during most of the summer. The family expect to divide their time between the old Earl home on Wilshire boulevard and their charming country place at La Canada, Calif.

Miss Dorette Heiberg, who was presented to society last season by her mother, Mrs. Elvin R. Heiberg, will go to West Point tomorrow to be the guest of Col. and Mrs. George Strong for June week.

Visitation Convent Alumnae to Lunch

The Sisters of the Georgetown Visitation Convent will entertain the alumnae association at a luncheon Wednesday, June 7, at 2 o'clock. Any alumna visiting in the city will be cordially welcomed.

Mrs. Funk Leaves For Trip to Europe

Mrs. Funk, wife of Representative Frank Hamilton Funk, and their daughter, Miss Mary Funk, left Washington Friday for New York, from where they will sail the first of this week for Europe to spend the summer. They will be joined later in the season by Representative Funk and their younger daughter, Miss Florence Funk, who will return with them in the autumn.

Maj. John G. Queckemeyer, who has been at the cavalry school in Fort Leavenworth, Kans., will return to duty shortly in the office of the chief of staff. Maj. Queckemeyer has many friends in Washington, made while on duty as aide to Gen. Pershing, from which he was relieved to attend the school in Fort Leavenworth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Walker Holcombe have returned to Washington and are again in their house at 2137 Bancroft place. Tuesday evening they entertained a small company of friends from the American colony in Jerusalem, who are making their first visit to this country, at dinner at the Chevy Chase Club.

Miss Edith Wilson of Halifax, Nova Scotia, is the guest of Miss Lucille Boggs, in her apartment in the Rockingham. Miss Wilson will leave this evening for Fredericksburg, Va., to attend the wedding of her brother, Mr. John Larkin Wilson, and Miss Mary Wallace Chichester, daughter of Judge R. H. Chichester of Gloucester, Va., which will take place tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock in St. George's Church at Fredericksburg.

Prominent People Plan To Sail for Europe as Hot Weather Nears

Field Marshal Earl French Leaves New York Aboard Celtic—Countess Annes- ley to Leave for Home in England

Field Marshal Earl French sailed yesterday aboard the Celtic for his home in England after spending a month in and near New York.

Priscilla, the Countess of Annesley, is spending the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Farwell in their summer home at Spymet, L. I. Mr. and Mrs. Farwell spent the winter in Washington, when they occupied a house on N street. The Countess of visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Maj. and Mrs. Joseph P. Alshire, at Fort Riley, Kan. Col. Vidmer recently returned from an inspection trip in the west. Col. and Mrs. Vidmer plan to remain here most of the summer, paying occasional visits to Quantary, the country place of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tupper, on Chesapeake bay near Solomons Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Edingham Lawrence Townsend have closed their house, on 21st street, and have taken a house at Blue Ridge Summit, where Mrs. Townsend and their tiny daughter, Margaret Graham Townsend, will spend the summer. Mr. Townsend will join them for the week ends through the season.

From Punch, London.

"What makes a man always give a woman a diamond engagement ring?" asks a lady writer. Generally speaking, the answer is, "The woman."

Birthday Party Given For Josephine Welk

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Welk entertained at a party Wednesday, May 31, from 4:30 to 7:30 o'clock, to celebrate the seventh birthday anniversary of their little daughter, Josephine Welk. The house was decorated throughout with pink and white peonies, and a large birthday cake formed the centerpiece on the table. Tiny white and pink flower baskets filled with candles were at each place. A musical program was given and dancing was a feature of the afternoon. The guests included Margaret Farland, Elizabeth Ballenger, Mildred Shepard, Mary Shepard, Emma Boonitz, Bernedette Ballinger, Alta Shepard, Beulah Orcutt and Buddy Welk.
